

semi-monthly; and in case the Board shall appoint detective policemen, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to do so, if they shall think fit, to the number of fifteen, said detectives shall receive the sum of twenty-three dollars per week, payable semi-monthly, and shall not be allowed to follow any business or profession, but shall devote their time to the discharge of their duties as detectives; the officers of police shall be paid semi-monthly, and their pay shall be as follows: The marshal shall receive two thousand five hundred dollars per annum; the deputy marshal shall receive two thousand dollars per annum; each captain shall receive thirty dollars per week; each lieutenant, twenty-five dollars per week; each round sergeant, twenty-three dollars per week; each sergeant, twenty dollars per week; and each turnkey eighteen dollars per week; the pay herein provided for police officers, policemen and detectives shall continue in force until a change shall be made by law. They are authorized and empowered to appoint thirty-five additional officers, who shall be known as probation officers, who shall hold their places without a commission until vacancies shall occur in the regular force, when they shall be appointed to such vacancies in the order of their appointment on the probationary list; provided, that at the time of said vacancy they shall, in the judgment of the Board of Police Commissioners, be fully competent in all respects to be commissioned for the full term of four years; the pay of said officers so appointed as aforesaid, shall be twelve dollars per week, to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the other officers of said police force are paid.

746. They are authorized, empowered and directed to select some suitable person to act as clerk to the Marshal of Police for said City, at a salary of twenty-five dollars per week, payable semi-monthly; and the said clerk, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall enter into bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of two thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such clerk, the said bond to be approved by them.